

THE BLUE ORANGE
PHYSICAL ADDRESS:	77 Dorp Street cnr Hamman Street	ERF:	772	APPLICABLE LEGISLATION
ARCHITECTURAL PERIOD:	Victorian	DATE BUILT:	c. 1900	OLDER THAN 60 YEARS:	yes
STYLE:	Late Victorian	TYPE OF BUILDING:	Residential	PREV. NATIONAL MONUMENT:
ZONING:		USE:	Restaurant
HERITAGE VALUES
RARITY:	No significance	HISTORICAL:	Some significance
AESTHETICAL:	Some significance	TECHNOLOGICAL:	Unassessed
CULTURAL:	Some significance	SOCIAL HISTORY:	No significance
SLAVE HISTORY:	No significance	PRESENT NHRA PROTECTION:	Unassessed no.
HERITAGE ANALYSIS
SITE & STRUCTURE DESCRIPTION:	Single storey building with hipped corrugated iron roof (originally semi-detached houses). Straight verandah on precast concrete columns. 2x2 sashes with internal folding shutters; glazed panelled doors. Left half has plastered wall with cast iron railing around garden; right half of garden unenclosed.Open parking area on corner.
HISTORY:
SOCIAL HISTORY:
ALTERATIONS:
GENERAL EVALUATION:	Contributing
SUGGESTED GRADING:	IIIC
DATE OF SURVEY:	November 2009. Revised in 2025.

DATE OF PHOTOGRAPH(S): MARCH 2025

DATE OF PHOTOGRAPH(S): MARCH 2025