HERITAGE ANALYSIS

SITE & STRUCTURE DESCRIPTION:	A typical, single-storey and double-pitched vernacular cottage (with roof loft), and lean-to addition at the back. The front lean-to comprises a central open stoep with rusticated columns. The cottage faces the street edge, and is located close to it. The front windows appear to be original.
HISTORY:	Originally a missionary community for emancipated slaves established by Barnabas Shaw following the abolition of slavery at the Cape in 1834. The original lots were rented out to 800 freed slaves.
