

ERF NO 1271

PHYSICAL ADDRESS:	20 Ryneveld Street	ERF:	1271
ARCHITECTURAL PERIOD:		DATE BUILT:	mid 18th C
STYLE:	Cape Vernacular	TYPE OF BUILDING:	Outbuilding
ZONING:		USE:	Museum

HERITAGE VALUES

RARITY:	Some significance	HISTORICAL:	Significant
AESTHETICAL:	Some significance	TECHNOLOGICAL:	Unassessed
CULTURAL:	Significant	SOCIAL HISTORY:	Unassessed
SLAVE HISTORY:	Unassessed	PRESENT NHRA PROTECTION:

HERITAGE ANALYSIS

SITE & STRUCTURE DESCRIPTION:	Barn-type building with corrugated iron roof and straight end gable with small 6x6 sash to street; larger 6x6 sash below and 8x8 sash on side; 4-panel door into lean-to on left of gable. Capped boundary wall partially screening restaurant behind.
HISTORY:
SOCIAL HISTORY:	Museum
ALTERATIONS:	Contemporary intrusive restaurant structure added early 2000's in courtyard
GENERAL EVALUATION:	Contributing
SUGGESTED GRADING:	IIIC
DATE OF SURVEY:	November 2009

APPLICABLE LEGISLATION

OLDER THAN 60 YEARS:	yes	PREV. NATIONAL MONUMENT:
----------------------	-----	--------------------------	--

DATE OF PHOTOGRAPH(S): NOVEMBER 2009