

SITE NAME: LE POMMIER WINE ESTATE

LANDSCAPE UNIT NUMBER: F11
LANDSCAPE UNIT GRADE: Grade II

ADDRESS OF THE SITE

PROPERTY NO
 SITE ADDRESS Helshoogte Road
 CURRENT USE Restaurant
 ORIGINAL USE Presumably a farm

PROTECTION AND GRADING

Curr.NHRA Protection S34
 >60YRS? Yes
 PROPOSED GRADING Grade IIIc

MAP

LATITUDE/LONGITUDE

-33.9191266667 18.928745

SIGNIFICANCE

| | |
|---------------|----------------|
| Associational | Representivity |
| Age | Rarity |
| Scientific | Archaeology |
| Symbolic | Intangible |
| Architectural | Low |

ARCHITECTURAL STYLE

Edwardian, altered

ARCHITECT/BUILDER

SITE DESCRIPTION

Altered Edwardian (1916) barn-like building, well-sited structure and associated buildings.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Much altered and with many additions and on-going site-works, the Edwardian structures retain some architectural significance. Moreover, because of its position along a scenic route and the mature natural and cultivated landscape, the site also has scenic and landscape significance

INTERIOR DESCRIPTION

GROUPING WITH OTHER SITES

EVIDENCE OF DEMOLITION

SITE HISTORY

LANDSCAPE SIGNIFICANCE

Some fine Oak trees

CONTEXTUAL DESIGN

INVASIVE ELEMENTS

Steep alteration / expansion

HERITAGE VULNERABILITY